PROBLEM STATEMENT

“In today’s competitive world, individuals often struggle to showcase their skills, achievements, and creative works in a structured and impactful way.

Traditional resumes are static and fail to reflect a person’s true potential, creativity, and growth journey. This creates a gap between talent and opportunities, as recruiters, clients, or collaborators are unable to get a complete picture of one’s abilities.

To bridge this gap, there is a need for a dynamic, personalized, and visually appealing platform where individuals can present their professional journey, projects, and skills effectively.”
